

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT Aug 14, 2025

EASTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON

SEAN F. McAVOY, CLERK

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

No. 4:24-cr-06018-MKD-4

Plaintiff,

ORDER GRANTING DEFENDANT'S
MOTION TO MODIFY CONDITIONS OF RELEASE

v.

KELLY JOHN LEE,

ECF No. 164

Defendant.

Before the Court is Defendant's Second Motion to Modify Conditions of Release (ECF No. 164). Defendant was represented by retained counsel Dennis Hanson.

Defendant requests that the Court remove Special Condition Nos. 8–9 which impose stand-alone GPS monitoring. ECF Nos. 88, 133, 164. Defendant asserts that the United States has no objection, and that United States Probation/Pretrial Services agrees with the requested modification. ECF No. 164. Defendant previously requested the removal of GPS monitoring in April 2025 in his First Motion to Modify Conditions of Release (ECF No. 132). While the Court did not remove GPS monitoring entirely, it lowered the level of monitoring from home detention to stand-alone monitoring. ECF No. 133. The Court declined to fully remove GPS monitoring due to the seriousness of Defendant's alleged underlying

1 offense and the length of time that Defendant had been on pretrial release. Id. The
2 Court noted that Defendant could renew his motion after being on pretrial release
3 for one full year without facing any allegations of violating release conditions. Id.
4 Now that Defendant has been on pretrial release for over one year without facing
5 allegations of violating conditions, Defendant has renewed his motion. ECF No.
6 164. Defendant asserts that in addition to complying with United States
7 Probation/Pretrial Services, he has been volunteering at a museum since April 8 2025. Id.

9 Given Defendant's compliance with conditions and the support of all parties,
10 the Court grants Defendant's motion.

11 Accordingly, IT IS ORDERED:

12 1. Defendant's Motion to Modify Conditions of Release (ECF No. 164)
13 is GRANTED.

14 2. Special Condition Nos. 8–9 (ECF Nos. 88, 133) are STRICKEN.

15 3. All other terms and conditions of pretrial release not inconsistent
16 herewith shall remain in full force and effect.
